

Sequence Analysis with Stata

The presentation will give an overview about the latest developments in the functions of the Stata-SQ-module written by U. Kohler and C. Brzinsky-Fay. With regard to labour market entry sequences of apprentices and non-standard employment careers in Germany and UK, I will focus on challenges of graphical display of sequences and broach the issue of parameter setting for optimal matching with regards to content of research.